Morning Moderator: Kent Cushman, SWFREC, Immokalee

9:00 Welcome and Opening Remarks - John Dunckelman, Associate Director, SWFREC, Immokalee

9:10 ‘State of the Florida Tomato’ Address - Reggie Brown, Florida Tomato Committee, Orlando

9:20 CUE Update - Where Do We Stand for 2006? Mike Aerts, FFVA, Orlando

9:40 Hurricane-Damaged Tomato Plants - Kent Cushman, SWFREC, Immokalee

10:00 BMP Fertilizer Trials in Central and Southwest Florida - Monica Ozores-Hamptom, SWFREC, Immokalee

10:20 Can we Rely on S.O.S. When Our Plants are in Trouble (Snake Oil Science) - Eric Simonne, Horticultural Sciences Dept.,

10:40 Water Infiltration and Postharvest Problems in Tomato Fruit - Jerry Bartz, Plant Pathology Department, Gainesville

11:00 An Outbreak of Bacterial Speck on Tomato in Spring 2005 - Jeff Jones, Plant Pathology Department, Gainesville

11:20 Lunch and Visit Sponsor Information Tables

Afternoon Moderator: Phyllis Gilreath, Manatee County Extension Service

1:00 Understanding Resistance Management - Linda Lindenbegan, Dow AgroSciences

1:20 Use of VIF and Metallized Mulch with Reduced Methyl Bromide Rates - Jim Gilreath, GCREC, Balm

1:40 Whitefly Q biotype: How Big a Threat? - Phil Stansly, SWFREC, Immokalee

2:00 Industry Updates

3:00 Adjourn

A total of 4 pesticide applicator CEUs have been approved.
A total of 4 Certified Crop Consultant CEUs have been approved (2.5 PM, 1.5 CM).